Coal Screen

Product overview

Coal briquettes vibrating screen is the use of vibrator vibration generated by the Complex-type vibration of the work. For coal preparation, mining processing, building materials, electric power and chemical industries of product classification. The coal vibrating screen with advanced structure strong vibration, easy maintenance, durable and so on features. Is the ideal crushing and screening equipment.

Advantage

1. No vibration, no broken. Screen machine circular low-speed movement, the material does not produce secondary crushing.

2. Low power consumption. Screen machines using multiple low-power integrated motor reducer, gear or belt drive.

3. Low noise. Screen smooth low-speed operation, does not produce vibration, noise far below the national standard.

4. Dust effect is good. Screen machine chassis for the flange structure, shaft seal with a seal, the whole structure for the whole seal.

5. Maintenance is small, long lasting.

Product features

1. The eccentric mass is used as the exciting force.

2. Using high-strength bolts, simple structure, easy maintenance and quick.

3. Tire coupling, flexible connection, smooth operation.

4. Using small amplitude, high frequency, large angle structure.
